FOR MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPISTS
AND CLINICAL PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS

LCB File No. R057-22

June 10, 2022

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 641A.160 and 641A.297; § 2, NRS 641A.160 and 641A.290; §§ 3-5, NRS 641A.160, 641A.170 and 641A.260; § 6 and 7, NRS 641A.160, 641A.287 and 641A.288; § 8, NRS 641A.160 and 641A.310.

A REGULATION relating to mental health; prescribing requirements governing the use of a recording of the provision of services by a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor for a training activity; revising and imposing certain fees; revising requirements for continuing education for marriage and family therapists and clinical professional counselors; revising requirements governing experience for and supervision of interns; adopting by reference certain ethical standards for clinical professional counselors; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law imposes certain requirements concerning the retention of health care records. (NRS 629.051) Existing law provides that a mental health professional or a person receiving training to be a mental health professional is not required to retain a recording of the provision of mental health services to a client if the recording is used for a training activity, the client provides informed consent and certain other requirements are met. (NRS 641A.297)

Section 1 of this regulation prescribes: (1) the form for providing such informed consent; (2) the length of time that a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor is required to retain such informed consent; and (3) the length of time after which such a recording must be destroyed. Section 1 also defines the term “training activity” for those purposes.

Existing regulations establish fees for certain services relating to the licensure of marriage and family therapists and clinical professional counselors. (NAC 641A.105) Section 2 of this regulation reduces certain fees relating to licensure, including fees relating to the licensure of certain persons affiliated with the Armed Forces of the United States. Section 2 also imposes a fee for the renewal of an inactive license as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor.

Existing law requires the Board of Examiners for Marriage and Family Therapists and Clinical Professional Counselors to establish: (1) requirements for continuing education; and (2) the qualifications required to be licensed as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor. (NRS 641A.170, 641A.260) Existing regulations: (1) exempt an approved provider of continuing education from the requirement to obtain the approval of the Board for each course of continuing education offered by the provider; and (2) prescribe a process to obtain approval as a provider. (NAC 641A.123, 641A.126) Section 3 of this regulation requires that such approval be renewed annually. Section 4 of this regulation reduces the number of hours of continuing education a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor is required to complete if he or she has been licensed for less than 18 months at the end of his or her first licensing period. Section 5 of this regulation makes a conforming change by removing an unnecessary reference to the number of hours of continuing education previously required.

Existing law requires the Board to require each holder of a license as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor to receive at least 2 hours of continuing education relating to cultural competency and diversity, equity and inclusion each licensure period. (NRS 641A.260) Section 4 imposes requirements concerning such continuing education.

Existing law requires an applicant for a license to practice as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor to have completed at least 3,000 hours of supervised marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling with at least 1,500 hours of direct contact with clients. (NRS 641A.220, 641A.231) Existing regulations require an intern to complete at least 1,500 hours of direct contact with clients and 1,200 hours of work related to the practice of marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling, as applicable. (NAC 641A.146) Section 6 of this regulation clarifies that the 1,200 hours related to the practice of marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling must be distinct from the 1,500 hours of direct contact with clients. Section 6 also makes certain other revisions concerning the experience that an intern is required to obtain.

Existing regulations provide that the Board will not give credit toward the required supervised marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling for experience a person acquired before becoming a licensed intern, except in certain circumstances. (NAC 641A.146) Section 6 expands the ability of the Board to give credit for such experience.

Existing regulations prescribe certain qualifications for and duties of an approved supervisor of an intern. (NAC 641A.182) Section 7 of this regulation requires that a supervisor be licensed in good standing by the Board and makes certain other revisions to those qualifications and duties. Section 7 also: (1) provides that the Board may periodically review the qualifications or performance of a supervisor; and (2) specifies the conditions under which approval as a supervisor may be revoked.

Existing regulations: (1) adopt by reference certain national standards of ethics for marriage and family therapists and clinical professional counselors; and (2) authorize the Board to impose discipline against a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor who violates those standards. (NAC 641A.252) Section 8 of this regulation additionally adopts by reference the Code of Ethics of the American Counseling Association as a standard of ethics for clinical professional counselors and interns.

Section 1. Chapter 641A of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
